Neighborhood Economic Development Corporation Non Disclosure/Confidentiality Agreement

All staff and volunteers share in the responsibility of ensuring that client information, proprietary information and confidential business information that are vital to the interests and the success of NEDCO (Neighborhood Economic Development Corporation) are protected.

Proprietary information includes all information obtained by NEDCO regular and temporary employees, volunteers and interns during the course of their work.

Confidential information is any information about NEDCO that is not generally known to the public. This may include, but is not limited to, client information, sponsor lists, donor lists, customer lists, personnel files, computer records, financial and marketing data, software, hardware, and trade secrets. No such data may be removed from the Organization's premises without prior written authorization from the Executive Director.

All inventions, improvements, and ideas made or conceived by an employee during his/her period of employment with NEDCO that are construed to be related to the business of NEDCO shall be the exclusive property of NEDCO. The employee must apprise his/ her supervisor if there is a question of relevancy.

Employees are expected to hold confidential all that takes place within NEDCO's office. Non-managerial staff should not talk to the media about NEDCO or its activities without the express permission of their supervisor, or the Executive Director. Any issues or problems should be referred to the Executive Director both personally and by confidential memo.

Client information may be shared with any entity covered by our release of information/disclosure once it has been signed by the client. However, only information that is required to further the interests of the client should be shared. Client information should be discussed only with staff members needing the information in order to effectively further the interests of the client.

A violation of this policy may subject the employee/volunteer/intern to immediate termination and possible legal action.

I acknowledge that I have received NEDCO's Non Disclosure/Conflict of Interest Policy and that I have read and understand the Policy. I agree to comply with the Policy.
